

CYBER SECURITY RECOMMENDATIONS

PacScan Ultrasound Systems

PacScan systems incorporate embedded software that does not rely on a PC-based operating system. As such, cyber security threats are relatively low. Reasonable precautions such as limiting access to device to an as-needed basis and using only trusted portable memory devices are recommended protections.

For more information on cyber security, please consult your IT support staff.